OWNERS ATTEMPT TO LIBEL

Vessel Put to Sea and Escapes Being Tied up—Redondo Makes Last Trip to Seattle—Other Interesting Marine News Along the Waterfront.

The British steamer Redhill arrived down yesterday morning and passed out to sea shortly afterwards. She goes to Comox to coal and from there to the United Kingdom. She came very near having bad luck on the way down as when she was coming out of the mouth of the Willamette she scraped barge No. 91 in tow of the steamer Atlas. It was reported here that the Standard Oil people made an effort to libel her for $2000 but were not quick enough as she had already passed out.

The steamer Elder which has been undergoing repairs at Portland will leave out Tuesday morning for Eureka and San Francisco. She expects only to make a short trip so she will be able to get back again on her regular schedule and will not go as far south as Los Angeles this trip.

The steam schooner Wellesley arrived in yesterday morning and after discharging freight at the Callender dock left up the river. The Wellesley is a fine new steam schooner and this is her first trip to the Columbia river.

The steamer Redondo is due to arrive from Seattle. This is her last trip on this run as she has been chartered by E. T. Williams & Co. of Portland, to load lumber for San Pedro. It is probable that another steamer will be put on the Seattle run.

The steamer Lurline made a record trip yesterday. She left here at 7 a. m. for Portland and was back at her dock at 7:30 p. m. Give her the broom.

The steamer City of Panama arrived in yesterday from San Francisco. She had the usual big cargo of freight and full passenger list.

The schooner James Rolph arrived down last evening from Westport and will go to sea today if weather conditions are favorable.

The steamship Indian Monarch sailed yesterday morning for St. Vincent's for orders.

The oil tanker Argyll arrived in yesterday from Southern California ports.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Frank Hart and Leading Druggists.
